

Fun with English Idioms

Sabrina

More about food

1. Apple-pie order: perfectly arranged and tidy

Example: Please make sure the class-room is in apple-pie order before the teacher arrives.

2. Go bananas: to become extremely angry or excited

Example: If I forget to clean my room, my parents will go bananas!

3. Full of beans: to have lots of energy and enthusiasm

Example: Stanley is so full of beans after breakfast that he just cannot hold himself still.

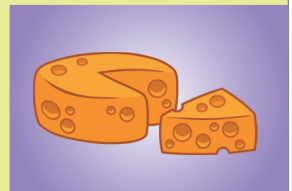

4. A piece of cake: something that is very easy to do

Example: I finished the English test in no time as it was a piece of cake.

5. Big cheese: a person who has a lot of influence in a company or an organization

Example: Beth's father is a big cheese in the nut industry and everyone respects him.

Picture source:

<https://designbundles.net/manudesign/51988-food-doodle-toolkit>

<https://www.needpix.com/photo/1444966/pie-dish-a-mode-plate-delicious-dessert-ice-illustration>

<https://pixabay.com/vectors/banana-bunch-fruit-food-bananas-25339/>

<https://pixabay.com/vectors/beans-legumes-vegetables-pulse-161504/>

<https://www.goodfreephotos.com/vector-images/cherry-cupcake-vector-clipart.png.php>

<http://pngimg.com/download/25304>